

Photos (top to bottom):
Betty Reid Soskin
©United Methodist Board of Global Ministries
/Ken Thompson
Peter Krogh
Anthony Causi.

KQED

A SERVICE OF
Northern California
Public Broadcasting

2601 Mariposa Street
San Francisco, CA 94110

KQED membercard

More Quality Programming

KTEH

Comcast 10, Digital 9.2

Brilliantly British comedies, mysteries, and dramas as well as local news and information programs from KTEH. (24 hours a day)

The following KQED channels (KTEH, Life, World, and Kids) are available via cable and/or over the air with a digital receiver. For complete television schedules, visit www.kqed.org/dtv.

This Is Us: National Parks Special

Inspired by the new Ken Burns documentary series The National Parks: America's Best Idea, the KTEH crew spent the summer filming in California national parks. They met lots of interesting local people along the way, like 88-year-old Betty Soskin, a ranger (the oldest in the country!) at Rosie the Riveter/World War II Home Front National Historical Park in Richmond; and 96-year-old Ernie Pruitt who, with his father, helped to build Pinnacles National Park during the Great Depression. You'll meet all these folks and many others when the program airs on KTEH Sunday, September 27, at 6pm.

life

Comcast 189, Digital 54.3

The very best of public broadcasting prime-time programs and KQED productions as well as programs that educate, enrich, and entertain—arts and entertainment, food, gardening, how-to, and travel. (24 hours a day)

Eyes on the Prize

Covering the period from the murder of 14-year-old Emmett Till in Money, Miss., and the Montgomery, Ala., bus boycott through school desegregation, the march from Selma to Montgomery, and the Voting Rights Act, Eyes on the Prize is considered the definitive history of this formative time in the nation's life. The six-hour documentary includes interviews with key figures of the movement, stirring music, and rare archival footage. Airs on Life Tuesday, September 15, through Thursday, September 17, at 7pm and 9pm.

World

Comcast 190, Digital 9.3

Thought-provoking television—history, local and world events, nature, news, and science. (24 hours a day)

Bill Moyers Journal

Veteran journalist Bill Moyers's weekly public affairs series Bill Moyers Journal—the name of his first important series on public television 35 years ago—re-invents the broadcast for the 21st century. Nominated for two News & Documentary Emmy® Awards, the program features interviews and news analysis on a wide range of subjects, including politics, arts and culture, the media, the economy, and issues facing democracy. Airs at a new time on World: Fridays at 9pm. See page 15 for the weekday World channel program schedule.

kids

Comcast 192, Digital 54.4

Quality children's programming that kids will love and parents and caregivers will appreciate. (24 hours a day)

The Electric Company

The new multimedia version of The Electric Company teaches phonics and other literacy skills in the same way that the original 1970s show did, but also includes a robust broadband component and after-school programs. Each episode follows the adventures of four friends who have literacy superpowers. They're defenders of the spoken and written word, and they often have to foil the mischievous efforts of some neighborhood pranksters who wreak havoc with their own word skills. Airs daily on Kids at 7:30am and 6:30pm. See www.kqed.org/dtv for additional repeats.