KQED Public Radio’s Program
HEALTH DIALOGUES
The New Federal Health Law: An Update

WHAT: Health Dialogues (HealthDialogues.org), a special monthly report airing as part of KQED’s statewide news program The California Report and hosted by Scott Shafer, engages listeners in an on-going discussion of California health care issues that are crucial to the state’s under-served population.

NOVEMBER TOPIC: “The New Federal Health Law: An Update”
How will the new federal health law affect you? Can your 24-year-old stay on your health insurance? What are your options if you have a pre-existing condition? And, what will new tax credits mean for small businesses? Join the November edition of Health Dialogues for an update, as key elements of this complicated overhaul are shaped. Also, we’ll see what role prevention is expected to play in improving health and bringing down costs.

WHEN: On KQED Public Radio 88.5FM San Francisco, 89.3FM Sacramento, Thursday, November 18 at 8pm, repeat broadcast Friday, November 20 at 2am and Saturday, November 20 at 1pm (usually at 2pm) and on various public radio stations throughout the state:

The California Endowment, through KQED Public Radio, has provided funding to partner public radio stations around the state to produce their own complementary local news stories, public affairs programming and outreach efforts in conjunction with the statewide broadcast program. You can find more information about Health Dialogues at HealthDialogues.org.

The California Report series Health Dialogues is made possible in part by a grant from The California Endowment, a private, statewide health foundation. The mission of The California Endowment is to expand access to affordable, quality health care for under-served individuals and communities and to promote fundamental improvements in the health status of all Californians. More information is available at their Web site, calendow.org.

About KQED Public Media

KQED Public Media (kqed.org) has served Northern California for more than 50 years and is affiliated with NPR and PBS. KQED owns and operates public television stations KQED 9 (San Francisco/Bay Area), KTEH 54 (San Jose/Bay Area), and KQET 25 (Watsonville/Monterey); KQED Public Radio (88.5FM San Francisco and 89.3FM Sacramento); the interactive platforms kqed.org, kteh.org, and KQEDnews.org; and Education Network. KQED Public Television, one of the nation's most-watched public television stations, is the producer of local and national
