KQED Public Radio’s
HEALTH DIALOGUES
“Immigration Reform and Public Health”

WHAT: Health Dialogues (www.HealthDialogues.org), a special monthly report airing as part of KQED’s statewide news program The California Report and hosted by Scott Shafer, engages listeners in an on-going discussion of California health care issues that are crucial to the state’s under-served population.

OCTOBER 2009 TOPIC: Immigration Reform and Public Health
It's been more than two decades since President Reagan signed a law giving so-called "amnesty" to nearly three million undocumented immigrants. Immigration reform is in the air once again -- with President Obama saying the issue will be tackled next year. Join Health Dialogues as we look at what it's like for undocumented and seasonal workers to get health care under the current system, and how immigration reform could change things.

WHEN: On KQED Public Radio 88.5FM San Francisco, 89.3FM Sacramento, Thursday, October 22 at 8pm, repeat broadcast Saturday, October 24 at 2pm, and on various public radio stations throughout the state:
