KQED Public Radio’s Program
HEALTH DIALOGUES
Looks at Men’s Health

WHAT: Health Dialogues (www.healthdialogues.org), a special monthly report airing as part of KQED’s statewide news program The California Report and hosted by Scott Shafer, engages listeners in an on-going discussion of California health care issues that are crucial to the state’s under-served population.

FEBRUARY TOPIC: Men’s Health

Men and women deal with their personal health in different ways. In general, women are much more likely than men to seek help and go to the doctor for regular check-ups. In fact, it’s much harder to get men to talk about their health at all. Join us for the February edition of Health Dialogues, as we examine men’s health issues – from prostate cancer to heart disease – and the challenges of reaching diverse populations.

WHEN: On KQED Public Radio 88.5FM San Francisco, 89.3FM Sacramento, Thursday, February 19 at 8pm, repeat broadcast Saturday, February 21 at 2pm and on various public radio stations throughout the state:
