KQED Public Radio’s Program
HEALTH DIALOGUES
Looks at Religion and Health Care

WHAT: Health Dialogues (www.healthdialogues.org), a special monthly report airing as part of KQED’s statewide news program The California Report and hosted by Scott Shafer, engages listeners in an on-going discussion of California health care issues that are crucial to the state’s under-served population.

APRIL TOPIC: Religion and Health Care

Where does God belong in the patient-doctor relationship? How does one’s faith affect decisions they make about treatment options, or end-of-life decisions? And, should patients ask for a physician who shares their beliefs?

WHEN: On KQED Public Radio 88.5FM San Francisco, 89.3FM Sacramento, Thursday, April 23 at 8pm, repeat broadcast Saturday, April 25 at 2pm and on various public radio stations throughout the state:

The California Endowment, through KQED Public Radio, has provided funding to partner public radio stations around the state to produce their own complementary local news stories, public affairs programming and outreach efforts in conjunction with the statewide broadcast program. You can find more information about Health Dialogues at <http://www.kqed.org/healthdialogues>.

The California Report series Health Dialogues is made possible in part by a grant from The California Endowment, a private, statewide health foundation. The mission of The California Endowment is to expand access to affordable, quality health care for under-served individuals and communities and to promote fundamental improvements in the health status of all Californians. More information is available at their Web site, www.calendow.org.
