KQED Public Radio's
HEALTH DIALOGUES
Looks at Addictions

WHAT: Health Dialogues (www.healthdialogues.org), a special monthly report airing as part of KQED's statewide news program The California Report and hosted by Scott Shafer, engages listeners in an on-going discussion of California health care issues that are crucial to the state's under-served population.

JUNE TOPIC: Addictions

Addictions come in many forms – from alcohol and drug abuse to obsessive gambling or compulsive overeating. Join Health Dialogues as we delve into the symptoms of addictive behavior and consider the latest thinking about effective treatments for preventing unhealthy choices.

WHEN: On KQED Public Radio 88.5FM San Francisco, 89.3FM Sacramento, Thursday, July 23 at 8pm, repeat broadcast Saturday, July 25 at 2pm, and on various public radio stations throughout the state:

The California Endowment, through KQED Public Radio, has provided funding to partner public radio stations around the state to produce their own complementary local news stories, public affairs programming and outreach efforts in conjunction with the statewide broadcast program. You can find more information about Health Dialogues at <http://www.kqed.org/healthdialogues>.

The California Report series Health Dialogues is made possible in part by a grant from The California Endowment, a private, statewide health foundation. The mission of The California Endowment is to expand access to affordable, quality health care for under-served individuals and communities and to promote fundamental improvements in the health status of all Californians. More information is available at their Web site, www.calendow.org.
