KQED's "Forum" Broadcasts Live from San Francisco City Hall

Special Two-Hour Show about Citizenship and the U.S. Citizenship Test
Thursday, June 28, 2007 at 9:00 – 11:00 am

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7, 2007 – KQED Public Radio 88.5 FM San Francisco and 89.3 FM Sacramento present a special live two-hour broadcast of "Forum with Michael Krasny" about citizenship and the U.S. Citizenship Test at San Francisco City Hall on Thursday, June 28.

In the opening hour (9:00 – 10:00 am) we will explore what it means to be the citizen of a nation. How is citizenship experienced? What are the duties and responsibilities of citizens, both natural-born and naturalized? The second hour (10:00 – 11:00 am) will be a discussion of the U.S. Citizenship Test — what it looks for in candidates for citizenship, its effectiveness as a tool for evaluation, and whether it should be revised to better serve its purpose.

The live broadcast is free and open to the public, and audience participation is encouraged. Due to limited seating, audience members must RSVP by phone at (415) 553-2322. Seating will be allotted on a first-come, first-served basis.
